Re: Brougham, Thomas C.
Group #60

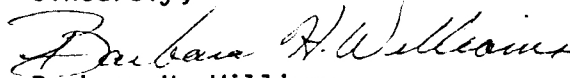

Dear Ms. Rabkin:

I am in receipt of your letter of September 14, 1979, with which you transmitted a change of account status card and memoranda prepared by Mr. Brougham.

There are many instances in which adults reside together. A few examples are as follows: An adult child may reside with a parent, adult siblings may reside together; unrelated adults of the same or of the opposite sex may reside together. However, the Health Plan contractually recognizes an adult subscriber-dependent relationship only in the case of marriage.

I am sorry we cannot accommodate Mr. Brougham.

Sincerely,

Barbara H. Williams
Representative
